MIDDLEFIELD IS WET.

Visited Last Friday by Worst Rain Storm of the Season.

Middlefield, Aug. 16. — Middlefield and vicinity were visited on Friday morning by one of the worst rain storms of the season, causing the most damage of any thus far. The storm commenced at about 7 a. m. and the rain came down in torrents for an hour and more. The brook above the village overflowed its banks and the water ran down through the village street, bringing debris of all kinds and badly washing out the road. The potato field of Frank W. Taber was washed out, badly damaging the crop, and many other farmers suffered from the effects of the storm, particularly as regards the highways, which were left in a very bad condition.

PETEEY BOY!

Just a nift flash by fast mail to uncork you a real fuss-stirring idea that has five aces shaded!

Now, bolt this down:—no two people, unless they run a circus or write encyclopedias, ever agree offhand on which is a camel and which is a dromedary when you line the two up and check off one hump on one and two humps on the other. You can't do it with the sun shining!

Spill this "hump" question first time you're in a bunch of live ones—if you want to see fur fly! Never heard such a wind-jamming squall in my life as tonight when I passed it to our crowd! You know Betty Ellen Jones. Well, she said a dromedary was a he-camel hunting a date in the desert! And Betty's "Vassar, '20"—rah, rah! All right, Betty!

All you've got to do is dig out your deck of Camel cigarettes. That "bird" out front clinches the argument—apparently—but!

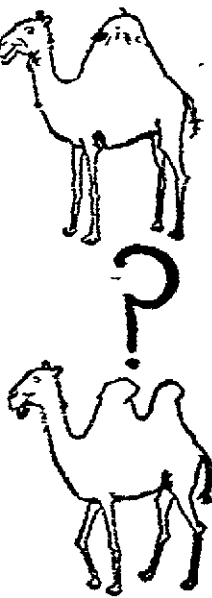

In the classic language of bigger business circles—"you tell 'em Cricket, Katy did!"

Report your luck quick. Try it on old Jig Jones! And listen, Peter. I'll shortly slip you some smoke news that'll make Jake's ideas rattle like a tin can tied to a towser dog's tail! S'long!

THE SLACKER LIST.

The United States government announces that it intends soon to publish the names of persons who are on the records of the army and navy as evaders of military service during the world war. The list is said to include 173,911 names.

The government desires that all persons whose records are not clear with their draft boards and who actually complied with the selective service law communicate at once with the war department, in order that no injustice be done to them. The government seeks only to expose the guilty.

The government must depend upon the records of the draft boards for its information and persons who failed to respond when actually called may expect to have their names published by the war department, according to present plans.

The slackers should be brought to account if it is possible to do so, and the war department believes that the majority of them will be discovered through the publicity plan proposed.
It is a duty that is owed to the men and women who rendered service to the government in time of war.

Men who refused to respond to the call to service after they had been enrolled and assigned to duty may have to face desertion charges if they are discovered, and they will probably find that they were the losers in evading their obligations to the government.

The war department has taken plenty of time to make up the list of persons who are charged with evasion of military duty. There will be errors to be corrected, of course, and the widest publicity is being given to the proposed publication of the names of draft evaders, in order that no individual be unjustly represented.

BEGINS TO FEED HIMSELF.

Some interesting deductions are possible from the report just made by the department of commerce on the foreign trade of the United States in foodstuffs. It appears that we are buying more food abroad and selling less food to foreigners.

During the fiscal year ending with the last day of June, 1920, imports of foodstuffs into the United States increased by more than $680,000,000 over the previous year, while exports of foodstuffs showed a decrease of more than $360,000,000. Europe is evidently getting back to pre-war production, while America finds it necessary to supplement its own production of food by increased purchases abroad.

Should Exchange Bonds.

Holders of six million temporary 4 per cent and 4 1/2 per cent coupon Liberty bonds in this federal reserve district who have not exchanged their temporary bonds for the permanent bonds with all coupons attached are entitled to do so, under regulations of the United States treasury, by surrendering their temporary bonds to their own banks or to the Federal Reserve bank of New York. The permanent bonds of all issues are now ready for delivery except the permanent First Liberty Loan Second Converted and Fourth 4 1/2s, which will be available on dates to be announced later.

There is no way for the holders of the temporary bonds to collect interest due after the date of the last coupon on the temporaries unless they exchange them. The exchange should, therefore, be made without delay. The new permanent bonds have all coupons to maturity and do not have to be exchanged again. These exchanges have been taking place for several months and the larger investors in Liberty bonds have promptly effected the exchange and obtained the new bonds. It is the small investors, composing the mass of Liberty bond holders, not accustomed to cashing bond coupons, who are urged to get the permanent bonds to which they are entitled and thus benefit by being able to clip their coupons and collect the interest when due.

Traut Petition Filed.

Petitions placing the name of Frank H. Traut in the race for the Republican congressional nomination at the September primaries were filed with the secretary of state in Albany on Saturday. Mr. Traut's petitions contained the names of about 2,900 enrolled Republicans in the counties of Broome, Chenango, Delaware, and Otsego. This was 1,500 names in excess of the requirements of the election law.

It is considered certain that the petitions of Samuel Jones of Norwich and John D. Clark of Delaware county will be filed before the time limit expires Tuesday night and that the drawing for positions on the primary ballots will be held about August 24.

Mail Service Improving.

A young woman in a Massachusetts town received a New Year's greeting card by mail this week. It was mailed by a friend who lives across the street from her on Dec. 31, 1918. She is now sending a return card and is fondly hoping it will reach its destination at least this year.

COUNTY JAIL INMATES FEW

REPORT OF ANNUAL INSPECTION SAYS IT WAS FOUND IN EX-CELLENT CONDITION.

Number of Admissions During Year Ending June 30, 64—Number Admitted During Year Ending Same Date in 1917, 206—Prisoners Working on County Farm—Only Two Prisoners.

Albany, Aug. 15.—The State Commission of Prisons has approved the following report of inspection of the Otsego County Jail:

Inspected July 31, 1920, Benjamin F. VanZandt, sheriff. There is also a jailer and matron.

At the time of inspection there were 2 inmates, both adult males. One was serving sentence and the other held for grand jury. The maximum population during the past year was 17, minimum, 1.

The following statement shows the falling off in admissions to this jail since 1917:

Total number of admissions during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917: Males, 206; Females, 8.

Total number of admissions during
the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920: Males, 64; Females, 2.

This is a fireproof jail of modern design, containing 19 steel cells and a hospital room, on two floors. In the basement is a large room used at times for the detention of local police prisoners, as there is no lockup in the village of Cooperstown.

The jail was found in excellent condition, having been painted throughout with white enamel paint. The bedding consists of straw ticks, blankets, sheets and pillows with cases. The toilets and lavatories were clean. Five new automatic flushing toilets with wooden seats were installed last year.

It is to be regretted that modern integral seat jail toilets with full flush were not installed. This is the type approved by the State Commission of Prisons and are much more durable and sanitary. This jail has a utility corridor and this type of toilet could easily be installed. When the balance of the old toilets are replaced, an approved type should be secured.

The inmates receive three meals a day and are employed at institution work, and 155 days services were rendered by sentenced men during the past year on the county farm. The per capita cost per week for board of prisoners was $3.64.

Respectfully submitted, Clifford M. Young,
Inspector.

"The Milky Way."

While there are about one hundred carloads of milk produced daily within a radius of fifty miles around Oneonta, and it is safe to say that it is the largest industry in this vicinity, and it is frequently called the "Milky Way" of New York state, where there are more cows to the acre than any other section of the United States. In order to increase the production of milk and comply with the wishes of about fifty thousand dairymen in this radius, the Oneonta fair have increased their premiums on cattle about fifty per cent and will not allow any "Oleo" or other butter substitutes demonstrated or shown on their grounds during the coming fair.

DR. SMILEY APPRECIATIVE.

Finds Oneonta Much Improved and Visit Here a Delight.

Editor Star:
I would like a little space in your paper to express my appreciation of the pleasure it has afforded me to walk your beautiful streets, breathe your pure air, and mingle with the splendid people of the community once again for a little while. It has been one of the most enjoyable vacations I have had in a long while. The sight of your hills is an inspiration, and your new park is a thing of beauty and will be a joy forever, and the people one meets have no tears in their voices, but are cheerful and optimistic and the great unrest which so generally prevails seems to have gotten small foothold in Oneonta. The influence of such surroundings has the effect of an invigorating tonic upon a depleted system.

The business houses of the city have called to mind a little game we often played when I was a boy, called "Pussy-wants-a-corner" in which we changed locations with each other quite rapidly. I was somewhat bewildered at first on walking through the business section by the names I noticed over the doors: it seemed as if I had got turned around in the night, but I got myself adjusted by and by and found that all this was one of the signs of increased prosperity. A few familiar signs, however, are gone, and clothing stores are in places where Boozie Emporiums were once located, which is a change of no small significance.
Absence from your midst has not diminished my interest in your prosperity and welfare, for the years I spent among you were pleasant ones, and many friends both inside and outside the church I served, have given me a very glad welcome at this time and I anticipate many another enjoyable visit to your city.

Sincerely,
W. B. Smiley.

Mr. Goble Denies.

Glenn E. Goble of 25 Riverview avenue called at The Star office last evening and gave his version of the accident on the South Side state road Saturday night. He was driving the Dodge car and states that he was driving along at about 20 miles an hour and was not speeding and that the driver of the other car involved hung to the center of the road and that he was not responsible for the accident. There were four occupants of his car.

ever, the public at large ought to know that there is a substitute for a team of horses, something which will not eat its head off, which will run for hours on one gallon of gasoline and will do everything required in plowing and cultivating in garden or small farm, from a half acre to twenty acres," says

Mr. Frank Backus, V. P. American Steel & Wire Co.

"There is now a garden tractor made of sturdy robust construction little enough to handle easily, and heavy enough to do the work. It will do the work of six men. It cultivates from one to three rows at one operation; it digs potatoes, gladiolus, beets, carrots, onions, and other root crops; it hauls a cart with a half-ton load; with the acme harrow, it pulverizes the hardest soil; it pulls eight 12-inch discs without trouble, and how it does plow!

"For mowing, it operates a 3 1/2 foot hay mower; it will cultivate rows only 12 inches apart by straddling the row. It will work up close to trees and takes no room to turn around. I have seen some of these machines made with shorter handles to do the plowing and cultivating inside of hot-houses where beds are made right on the ground.

"In these days when the cost of living is paramount, we must grow more successful gardens, and here's the way to do it without backache."

SYRACUSE LIKES MINSTRELS.

Gus Hill's Aggregation at Oneonta Theatre Tonight.

With George Wilson illuminating the stage with his 50-year experience, and James Gorman producing the show, Gus Hill's minstrels were bound to have the favor of the best of the old times coupled with modern "patterned" punctuations. The good-successful gathering of minstrel critics at the Wieling last night rendered a verdict of "worth while and good enough to make us homesick for the good old days."

Although George Wilson started as a minstrel with Jack Haverly before the Gays when Haverly advertised "49 cents" "em—10," he is now with a show that has 50. Gus Hill said there was 50 and there was 50. Wilson gave us the kind of a stump speech that is a better example of the old days than anything since Dockstader quit coming here. It was a survival of laughter. Grandsons laughed at that style of mirth brought down to date, just as their grandfathers did.
There is one good bit of advice: Get in to see Wilson and carry home a memory of what a real stump speech is like—a speech that has survived since the days of Ad. Ryan. Besides Wilson and some pretty happy comedians of the modern school, that first part had one of the best male choirs that minstrels have brought here. In the old Murray and Irwin, the whislers made a hit. "The Dancer's Dream" was a picturesque act, much of the old Southern atmosphere being introduced. The Musical Cates and Markwith Brothers, a saxophone quintet, did much in the instrumental line.
The finish was one of the usual aboriginal operettas.

Of course, no minstrels would be complete without jokes about the women, and equal rights have given greater opportunity. Here are a few of the best:

"No longer do they say 'Love, honor and obey' in the marriage service, but 'stop, look and listen.'"

"Why, that woman was so thin that if she hadn't had an Adam's apple she wouldn't have had any shape at all."

"They build apartments so fast in Syracuse that a man going down in the morning sees the foundations being laid and when he comes home at night the landlord is putting tenants out because they didn't pay their rent."

GIANTS COMING TOMORROW.

Agree to Change in Schedule When Rain Dampens Prospects Yesterday.

Disappointment reigned among Oneonta ball fans yesterday when the wet condition of the diamond at Neahwa park prevented the game between the Oneonta Cubs and the Brooklyn Royal Giants from being played. The visiting players, comprising probably the strongest colored ball stars on the road today, arrived here early in the day all ready for the affair, only to spend the day idling about the city because of the decidedly damp weather. Oneonta fans, having read of the teams' reputations, were anxiously awaiting the game and disappointment was keen when the weather gods ruled against the play.

Manager Weidman, anxious to keep his word that the Giants would play here, immediately got into touch with their manager and made arrangements for the team to come here again Wednesday. The Giants play today at Stamford and will return for the game tomorrow. The Cubs originally had a game scheduled at Stamford, but the Delaware county boys agreed to cancel the game to accommodate Oneonta fans who want to see the dusky boys in action. Thus, weather permitting, local enthusiasts will see the game played tomorrow.

This afternoon, at Neahwa park, the Cubs will have the Cortland Moose as their opponents. This was the team that trimmed the Oneontans, 8 to 2, a week ago at Cortland, and the local boys plan to turn the tables today. Game called at 4:15.

Rein Puts Bink on Ball Games.

The Twilight baseball league again got off to a poor start for the week yesterday, when rain prevented the Y. M. C. A. and Reds from playing. Only one game was played last night on account of the inclement weather and from present indications this week will be little better. If fair, the Wanderers and Shopmen will cross bats at Neahwa park this evening.

SILVER CREEK DISCUSSED.

Property Owner Asks That Stream Be Cleared of Gravel and Debris.

The board of public works, at the meeting last evening had the vexatious problem of Silver Creek presented to them for consideration when James Elton appeared and called attention to the deposits of gravel and debris, doubtless resulting from the recent severe rains. He requested that the bed of the stream be cleared as a matter of public safety.

The request resulted in a discussion of the old problem, that of municipal or individual responsibility, and the board, while taking no action, took the subject under consideration and may request the property owners along the stream to clear it. It's an old question, but should be settled and the stream made clear for carrying for the large volume of surface water that finds its way into it.

Residents of North Fifth street appeared before the board and asked for a sewer on that street to the length of about 500 feet. The request will be given consideration by the board.

J. L. Palmer called attention to the fact that surface water is standing much of the time on Fonda avenue in the vicinity of West Broadway, and asked that the condition be remedied. This request will also be given consideration.

D. J. C. RUSSELL MUCH IMPROVED

Beloved Pastor of First Presbyterian Church Had Been Very Ill.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Russell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church and quite generally recognized as a community pastor, who had been seriously ill at Horseheads, was reported last evening to be much improved, which fact will be received with much satisfaction here.

He was last week requested to come to Oneonta to officiate at the funeral of the late Walter E. Butts, but Mrs. Russell replied that he was too ill to come. It was hoped here that his illness would be of short duration and that he would speedily recover. On Sunday, word came that he was critically ill, accompanied by a request that Dr. Arthur W. Cutler come to Horseheads for a consultation. Dr. Cutler, however, is with Mrs. Cutler on a motoring and sight-seeing tour and now in Quebec, Canada, and could not be reached.

Last evening, G. N. Rowe in conversation with Henry Russell, Dr. Russell's son, on the telephone, was informed that Dr. Russell was much improved. He has been suffering from his old ailment with complications and it is assumed here that the critical condition has been relieved and that barring unforeseen conditions he will continue to improve.

Scouts Having Great Time.

Yesterday afternoon, about 18 Boy Scouts left for Cliffside, Goodyear lake, to occupy the camp vacated on the same day by the preceding squad of about the same number. It was arranged that each squad should spend a week in camp and those who returned to Oneonta give glowing and enthusiastic accounts of camp life on Goodyear lake. The second week of camp will be conducted in the same manner as the first under the care of E. W. Engler.

Albany and Susquehanna Check.

The other day while on the premises of Samuel Richards on Pine street, L. J. Eggleston picked up in the driveway an old brass check, “No. 76, Albany and Susquehanna Railroad and Day Line Boats.” The check is fully three inches in length and one would think he had a railroad rail and not a check were he to place it in his pocket these days. It was in use before the D. & H. company acquired what is now the Susquehanna division of the D. & H. road.

Sale of Automobile Tires.

Our big sale of automobile tires at factory-to-consumer prices, is still going on. We have had buyers who came as far as 100 miles to attend this sale after they learned that we were selling tires at lower prices than they could buy them elsewhere. Anyone in need of tires or who will need them soon ought to give their money a chance and get our prices before buying. We guarantee that no other concern can meet our prices on the same grade of goods, as we are direct factory distributors and buy at lower prices than any other concern outside the great cities. “Seeing is believing,” so come in and look over the goods and get the prices.

While this sale lasts, should it happen that we are out of your size, we will order it for you at the sale price plus express charges. Come early while we still have a good assortment.

Don't let anyone fool you into thinking that we are only selling off old stock. You know this concern well enough to know that we never let the moss get very thick on either of our goods or ourselves. Most of these tires have been in stock less than three months.

All night then obey that impulse, drop in and make your selection today.

MAKE BIG HAUL IN NORWICH

Five Masked Teggmen Overpower Watchmen at Pharmaceutical Company's Plant and Carry off Opium and Morphine.

Norwich, Aug. 15. — Thousands of dollars' worth of opium and morphine were stolen early Sunday morning from the plant of the Norwich Pharmaceutical company. It is one of the boldest robberies ever perpetrated in this city or county. Five holdup men made a clear getaway with several hours' start and left no clues as to their identity. Police officials in every city of the country have been notified and wholesalers in drugs in order that the quantity of priceless drugs may be traced.

As Fred Lee and Ted Robinson, night watchmen in the biggest pharmaceutical house in the country, were making their rounds about 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning, they switched on the lights in the shipping department, in the building where the main offices are located. Out from the tiers of packaged goods stepped five robbers, and taking Robinson and Lee wholly by surprise, quickly overpowered gaged and bound them in a half-dozen minutes against posts in the room. The watchmen were unharmed because one of the robbers is said to have identified Lee and told them that they would not be hurt because he (the robber) knew him as he had previously worked at the pharmacy.

This is borne out by the apparent familiarity with the location of the crude opium and the morphine stocks, which were locked up in other buildings. A big haul was made, the exact extent of the loss only being ascertained upon inventory of the stocks, which was in progress yesterday. Crude opium is worth several hundred dollars a pound, it is said, and the morphine is equally expensive.

Asher Young, the day watchman, rising in at 6 o'clock and not finding his colleagues, started his rounds hurriedly, found Lee and Robinson unharmed but weary and numb because of their posture and gags, notified the police and pharmacy officers and the search for the robbers was begun.

THE WEIDMANS CELEBRATE.

Invite in Hundred Guests on Occasion of Sixteenth Wedding Anniversary.

Yesterday was the sixteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weidman, and in order to properly observe the event the manager of the local ball team invited in a hundred, more or less of his friends and last night was a happy time at Weidman's garage, 14 Center street. The early hours of the evening were spent in dancing to the music of Canning's orchestra, and the upper floor of the garage was filled with a happy crowd of dancers, all of whom admired Duffer's combined garage and dance hall.

At a late hour the company adjourned to the main floor of the garage, where tables had been set and everybody proceeded to indulge in the hospitality of the Weidmans. There were enough “eats” for all and each of the guests had his or her favorite dish with all the trimmings. Noticeable among the guests were the members of Weidman's ball club, the Oneonta Cubs, most of whom turned out to enjoy their manager's hospitality.

Following the repast, speechmaking was in order, and for an hour or so all listened to the informal talks that were entirely of a personal nature and were given for the benefit of this or that individual.

The dance hall and “dining room” were tastefully decorated for the occasion with crepe paper and presented a very attractive appearance. The general supervision of the party was in the hands of Mrs. Charles Damascio, Mrs. Weidman's sister, and to say that she knows her job is putting it mildly. Everybody present last night had a good time and all united in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Weidman many more such happy anniversaries.

Late in the evening, Dr. F. H. Marx, in behalf of the ball players and their friends, presented Mr. Weidman with a fine traveling bag and Mrs. Weidman with a silver dish.

DR. G. J. VANVECHTEN HERE

Former Oneonta Physician Now Surgeon for Hudson Coal Company.

Dr. George J. VanVechten, formerly a resident physician, now surgeon for the Hudson Coal company at Olyphant, Pa., and recently named also as surgeon for the D. & H. Railroad company in the same city, was in the city yesterday for a few hours, calling on old friends, of whom he has many here. He was accompanied by his son, George E., and they were on their way to Mechanicville, where they go to visit a sister of the doctor.

Dr. VanVechten left Oneonta some 12 years since. After practicing for a few years he was chosen health commissioner of the city of Scranton, in which position he served for four years. Later he was engaged in the government health service and at the outbreak of the war was sent to Arkansas, where he had charge of a hospital, being transferred to one in New Jersey.

When through with the hospital service the position with the Hudson Coal company, which is an attractive one, was offered and accepted. That his work has been eminently satisfactory is attested by his appointment as surgeon for the railroad company.

He has recently returned from a motor trip to Nova Scotia, where he enjoyed some excellent fishing and having a few days of his vacation left, he makes the trip to Oneonta and Mechanicville. Of his continued success his many Oneonta friends are pleased to learn.

Evidence of Severe Storm.

Former Congressman G. W. Fairchild, who motored to Binghamton yesterday afternoon and returned early last evening, reported on his return that he saw evidence of a severe rain storm near Sidney and that along the dug road south of Sidney, where the road has been left unimproved, pending a decision relative to the O. & W. crossing, the bank washed out and that a force of men was at work repairing the same. In that section, lawns were badly damaged and crops must have suffered severely. There had been no rain in Binghamton when he left.
